Announcement on Conditional Movement Control Order (CMCO) for Kuala Lumpur, Selangor and Putrajaya

Dear Students and Members of the Sunway Education Group (SEG) community,

1. The Government of Malaysia announced on 12 October 2020 that the Conditional Movement Control Order (CMCO) will be enforced from midnight 14 October 2020 for Kuala Lumpur, Selangor and Putrajaya. For updated information regarding the CMCO directives, please refer to: <https://t.me/MKNRasmi>.
2. It was further announced that all economic activities in the affected areas can proceed as usual.
3. In line with this announcement and after consultation with the Ministry of Higher Education and Ministry of Education Malaysia, the Sunway Education Group shall operate in the affected areas as follows:
 - a. For Students
 - i. There will be no physical in-class or face-to-face classroom instruction. Thus, teaching and learning activities will be conducted online from 14 October 2020 to 27 October 2020.
 - ii. Students who are currently residing in campus residences are asked to remain during this period.
 - iii. External, international and professional examinations that are ongoing or planned will continue as scheduled. Students travelling to sit for examinations should obtain and carry a letter from their respective programmes or institutions, in case this is necessary for travel.
 - iv. Students who need to access any on-campus resources must adhere to all campus SOPs (e.g. wearing face mask and maintaining physical distancing).
 - b. For Staff
 - i. Campus operations will continue to support our students' learning and the resources needed.
 - ii. Staff who need to work on campus during this period will be issued an authorisation letter by their respective HODs to facilitate travelling to work from district to district, if so needed.
4. SEG is guided by the various directives issued by the health and education authorities and will continue to provide updates from time to time. We thank you for your continued support and understanding.

Thank you.

Elizabeth Lee (Dr)
